

WASHINGTON – Congressman John W. Olver (1st District) announced today that the House A

Olver said, "The automated system will enable PVTA to be ADA compliant while at the same tir

Rep. Olver is a member of the Appropriations subcommittee on Transportation and included the

Through his position on the Appropriations Committee, Olver was able to secure over $10 millio

"The new automated system will greatly assist the elderly and disabled who depend upon publi

The Americans with Disability Act (ADA) requires public transportation to be accessible and usa

Currently, with PVTA, the onus has been falling on bus drivers to verbally announce each stop.

###